

Technology and Innovation Unit

Objective

Facilitate the acquisition and adoption of modern technologies for SMEs to increase the quality, innovative, productive and competitive of products and improving the skills and knowledge of entrepreneurs.

Main Activities

- Financial support for technological and professional training
- Introducing new technology and machinery for small and medium scale entrepreneurs.
- Improve IT driven business knowledge of entrepreneurs
- Promoting innovation and value-added products and services
- Providing technical support and advice to improve product quality
- Directing, coordinating and financing to obtain quality assurance for products
- Providing necessary training and advice to increase the productivity of the production process and improve the quality of the product.
- Provide training and advice on health and safety in product or service processes

Programs Organized by Technology and Innovation unit according to the requirement

- Group Technology Training Program
- Standardization and productivity training program
- Plant Plan Training Program
- Production process development program
- Health and safety program
- NVQ Preparation training program
- Information technology training program

Group Technology Training Program

SED Salon Program

